

Ullapool WTW, North Region

09/05/2019

DWQR Staff Present

Moira Malcolm

Scottish Water Staff Present

Michael Munro, Nathan George,
David Hill, Megan Galloway, Iain Bond, Robert White

Summary of Inspection

Overall Summary

Ullapoolr WTW is a small-medium sized works which has been supplying the town of Ullapool and surrounding area for 9 years. It is fed by boreholes with ultrafiltration membranes to treat water, followed by disinfection with sodium hypochlorite and pH correction. Staff are knowledgeable and operate the works efficiently, although the completion of paperwork could be improved.